Larry Silverberg's Meisner Master Class (level one)

Ages: Adults, 10 week class

This is an intensive 10 week workshop in the Meisner technique, led by Master Meisner teacher and author of the Meisner Approach Workbooks, Larry Silverberg and Meisner Certified teacher, Eugenie Bondurant. During the course of your time with Larry and Eugenie, you will be experiencing these vital acting skills:

- Effortless listening as the key to deeper availability, or as Larry describes it, "listening with the ear of one's heart"
- Bringing your humanity to everything you do
- Empowering the expression of your authentic point of view
- Getting out of your head and back to your natural, organic impulses
- Release from the internal critic and freeing the spontaneous self
- Deepening your access to your own emotional instrument in a healthy and organic manner
- The reality of doing as the foundation for bringing vivid life to the your work on stage or in front of the camera
- The difference between acting as an art of "knowing" rather than one of "showing"

This beginning Meisner class is appropriate for actors at any level of acting experience and no prior Meisner training is required.
