overview

“So where did you get the name ‘freefall’?”

We’ve heard the question hundreds of times. And we’ll likely hear it hundreds more, as freeFall Theatre is quickly gaining a significant share of the arts buzz in the greater Tampa Bay area.

Remember when you launched off your schoolyard swings, or let go of that rope over that lake at your summer camp? Or, perhaps, do you recall the last time you lifted out of your seat on a roller coaster’s quick rise and fall, or even jumped out of a plane?

That’s freeFall.

Seeing a show at freeFall offers a visceral, responsive, and immersive theatre experience. The rush of live theatre, the exhilaration of superb staging, and the all-encompassing sense that there’s something different going on here. All of these elements build toward the composite of what critics are calling “utterly professional” theatre.

And off the stage, our commitment to community partnerships as well as fostering economic impact and neighborhood pride is building in a very exciting way:. We welcome the opportunity to provide space, either rented or donated, to community organizations large and small, for- and not-for-profit. In the pages that follow, please find information about each space.
